

a social story about
private parts

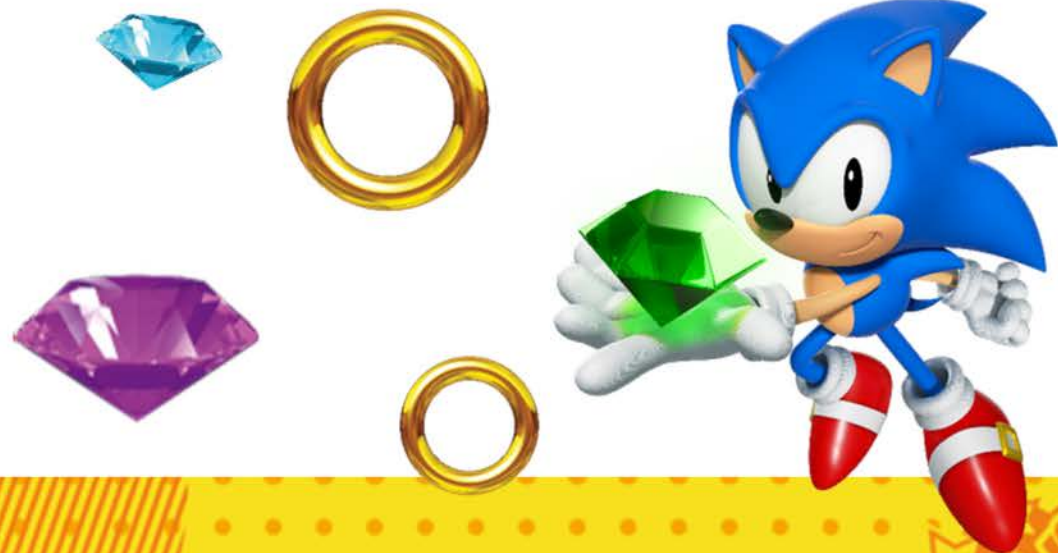

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG

Sonic is super fast! He loves to run, jump, and spin around Green Hill Zone.

He also takes good care of his body – because his body helps him do amazing things!

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG

Sonic knows that everyone's body is special and belongs to them.

That means my body belongs to me, and your body belongs to you.

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG

Some parts of our body are called private parts.

Private parts are the areas covered by a swimsuit or underwear.

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG

Private parts are not for showing and not for touching other people.

They are private – that means just for me.

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG

Sometimes, it's okay for a grown-up helper (like Mum, Dad, or the doctor) to help me clean or check my private parts.

This only happens when I say it's okay, and when a trusted adult is there.

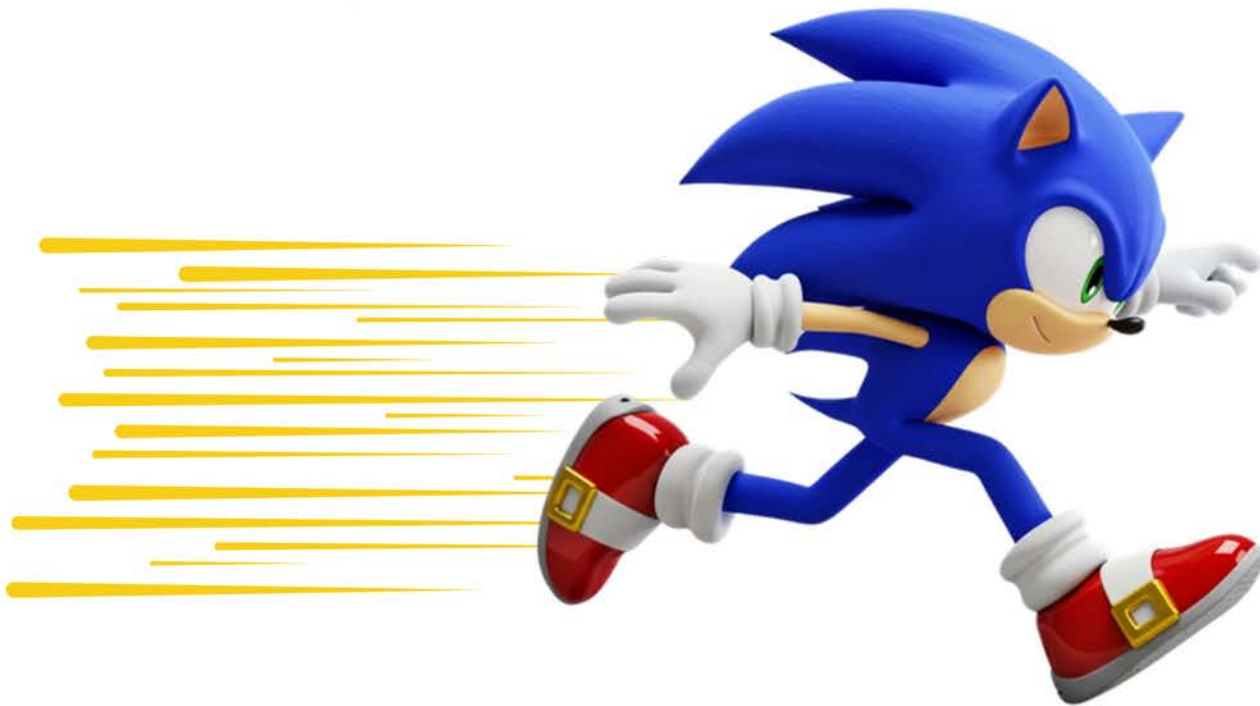

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG

If someone tries to look at, touch, or ask to see my private parts – Sonic knows what to do! He can say:

“Stop! That’s private!”

Then run away fast – like Sonic!

And tell a grown-up he trusts, like Mum, Dad, or his teacher.

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG

Sonic knows that talking to adults helps keep him safe.

It's always okay to tell – even if someone says it's a secret.

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG

Sonic feels proud when he keeps his body safe and private.

He knows:
“My body belongs to me. I can keep my private parts private.”

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG

Sonic says, “You’re the hero of your own body – keep it safe, keep it private, and always tell an adult you trust!”
